DISCLAIMER

THIS IS NOT A SOLICITATION OF ACCEPTANCE OR REJECTION OF THE PLAN.
ACCEPTANCES OR REJECTIONS MAY NOT BE SOLICITED UNTIL THE BANKRUPTCY
COURT HAS APPROVED THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT. THIS DISCLOSURE
STATEMENT IS BEING SUBMITTED FOR APPROVAL BUT HAS NOT YET BEEN APPROVED BY THE COURT.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Delphi and its affiliates deny any liability and reserve the right to challenge any and all such claims should this matter not be resolved consensually as anticipated.

8. *The Joint Interest Agreements

As discussed in more detail below, the Debtors are the subject of certain investigations including (a) the internal review conducted by the Audit Committee of Delphi's Board of Directors, (b) the formal ongoing investigations by several governmental agencies of certain previously employed individuals, (c) the Company's restatement of earnings for fiscal years 2001 through 2003, (d) the subject matter related to the commencement of certain class actions, including, without limitation, actions brought under ERISA and various securities actions, and (e) the review by a special committee of Delphi's Board of Directors of certain shareholder derivative demands and related actions. The Bankruptcy Court approved separate joint interest agreements between the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee and between the Debtors and the Equity Committee, which allows the Debtors to share certain confidential, and sometimes privileged, information with the Creditors' Committee and Equity Committee, respectively. The Bankruptcy Court also approved fee procedures to protect the confidential time detail that discloses work conducted by the professionals working on matters related to these investigations.

9. *Exclusivity

Pursuant to an order of the Bankruptcy Court dated January 6, 2006, the Bankruptcy Court extended the Debtors' exclusive period to propose a plan of reorganization (the "Filing Period") through August 5, 2006, and to solicit acceptances of such plan (the "Solicitation Period") to October 4, 2006. Pursuant to further orders of the Bankruptcy Court entered on June 19, 2006, January 23, 2007, and July 29, 2007, the current Filing Period extends through December 31, 2007 and the Solicitation Period through February 29, 2008.

10. *Preserving Estate Causes Of Action

(a) Avoidance Procedures Order

On August 16, 2007, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order (the "Avoidance Procedures Order") authorizing the Debtors to enter into tolling agreements with respect to avoidance and other causes of action, approving procedures to identify those causes of action that should be preserved or abandoned, authorizing the Debtors to abandon certain actions, and establishing adversary proceeding procedures for preserving causes of action. The Debtors sought this relief so that they could take steps to fulfill their fiduciary duties to preserve valuable estate assets in a manner that will not unnecessarily disrupt their prosecution of the Plan or their existing business relationships with potential defendants that are necessary to the Debtors' ongoing operations.

Section 546(a)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a debtor-in-possession may not commence a cause of action under section 544, 545, 547, 548, or 553 of the Bankruptcy Code more than two years after the Petition Date. Similarly, section 108(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a debtor-in-possession may not commence a cause of action under non-bankruptcy law—for which the applicable statute of limitations, but for the chapter 11 filing, would have otherwise expired during the initial two years of a case—more than two years after the Petition Date. Thus, to bring timely lawsuits on any of these causes of action, the Debtors needed to commence them no later than October 9, 2007 or October 15, 2007, as applicable.

Because of the Plan's treatment of unsecured creditors, the Debtors have determined that the affirmative pursuit of many if not all of these causes of action would not benefit their estates and creditors. As described in this Disclosure Statement, the Plan will pay or satisfy all allowed claims in full through distributions of common stock. As a result, avoiding preferential transfers through causes of action under section 547 of the Bankruptcy Code or similar state laws ("Preference Claims") would provide little or no benefit to the Debtors' Estates because any party returning such a transfer would be entitled to an unsecured claim for the same amount, to be paid or satisfied in full under the Plan. For the same reasons, avoiding statutory liens under section 545 of the Bankruptcy Code or prepetition setoffs under section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code would provide little or no benefit to the Estates. In addition, under the Plan the Reorganized Debtors will not retain the Preference Claims except those specifically listed on Exhibit 7.24 to the Plan.

The Debtors estimate that there may be more than 11,000 potential Preference Claims arising from transfers during the 90-day period before the Petition Date, which transfers total approximately $5.8 billion (without taking into account potential defenses such as transfers made in the ordinary course of business). With respect to transfers subject to potential claims that the Debtors did not receive reasonably equivalent value in exchange (commonly known as constructive fraud claims), the reach-back period made applicable by section 544(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and state law (most likely Michigan and New York law with respect to most transactions in these cases) is generally the six years prior to the Petition Date. Thus, with a company of Delphi's size, there are literally hundreds of thousands of transactions that occurred during that six-year period.

Although the Debtors do not intend to pursue these causes of action in light of the distributions to be made under the Plan, as a precautionary measure they must identify and preserve the causes of action in some manner. The Debtors explored various alternatives to commencing actions before the two-year deadline, such as executing tolling agreements with potential defendants. The logistical challenges of circulating and executing tolling agreements with such a large number of potential defendants, however, made that solution impractical. The Debtors, therefore, determined that to the extent they did not execute tolling agreements they needed to timely commence actions on most of these claims or risk losing them.

(b) Procedures To Identify And Preserve Causes Of Action

To identify and preserve these claims, without disrupting the successful prosecution of the Plan and the Debtors' existing business relationships, the Avoidance Procedures Order established the following procedures:

(i) Tolling Agreement

- Approval Of Form. The Avoidance Procedures Order approved a form of stipulation which, without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, tolls the applicable statute of limitations on claims against any party with whom the Debtors seek to enter into such a stipulation.

- Intercompany Tolling. The Avoidance Procedures Order deemed all Debtors to have entered into a tolling stipulation with each of the other Debtors and affiliated non-Debtor entities controlled by the Debtors or that had actual notice of the Motion.
  - (ii) Approval Of Avoidance Evaluation Procedures And Authority To Abandon Claims
- Preference Claims Below $250,000 In Value. The Debtors are authorized (but not directed) to abandon these preference actions. To the extent that any of these actions are against insiders or involve persons or transactions associated with the SEC investigation of the Debtors, the Debtors are authorized (but not directed) to abandon those actions after notice to the Statutory Committees. If a Statutory Committee objects within ten days after service of any such notice, the Debtors may bring the matter before the Bankruptcy Court for a ruling on whether the proposed abandonment satisfies section 554(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.
- Select Categories Of Preference Claims. The Debtors are authorized (but not directed) to abandon the following categories of preference actions: (i) payments to parties with a secured or priority interest in such payment, (ii) union dues, (iii) pension plan contributions, (iv) payments required under the terms of collective bargaining agreements, (v) payments to reimburse employee business expenses, (vi) ordinary course wages, salaries, and benefits to employees, (vii) payments required by a garnishment to satisfy third-party judgments and obligations, (viii) contributions to charitable organizations, (ix) payments to foreign suppliers, (x) payments to the Debtors' shippers, (xi) payments to the Debtors' insurance providers, and (xii) payments to the Debtors' utilities.
- Scope Of Fraudulent Transfer Review. The Avoidance Procedures Order provides that, for purposes of identifying and preserving potential fraudulent transfer claims, the Debtors need only review the following categories of transactions: merger and acquisition deals at or exceeding $20 million, transfers to Delphi's board of directors or strategy board members other than for compensation or ordinary-course expense reimbursement (if any), unusual securities transactions, dividend distributions to 5% shareholders, and Delphi's financially troubled supplier program.
- Additional Authority For Abandonment After Notice To Statutory Committees. The Debtors are authorized (but not directed) to abandon, after notice to the Statutory Committees, and without further order of the Bankruptcy Court or further notice, claims (i) with insignificant value, (ii) where litigation costs would likely exceed expected recovery, (ii) where the potential harm to businesses outweighs expected recovery, or (iv) where valid defenses exist. If a Statutory Committee objects within ten days after service of the notice, the Debtors may bring the matter before the Bankruptcy Court for a ruling on whether the proposed abandonment satisfies section 554(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(iii) Commencement Of The Adversary Proceedings And Service Of Process

- Adversary Proceedings Subject To Procedures. The procedures apply to each adversary proceeding that the Debtors identify to the Clerk of Court as being subject to these procedures.
- Deferral Of Issuance Of Summons. The Clerk of Court is directed to defer issuing a summons after the filing of a complaint, unless and until the Debtors intend to pursue the claims in the complaint.
- Extension Of Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m) Time Period. The Debtors have until March 31, 2008 to serve each defendant with the summons and the complaint, without prejudice to the Debtors' right to seek further extensions of the deadline.
- Service Of Order With Summons And Complaint. The Debtors must serve a copy of the Avoidance Procedures Order upon each defendant in any adversary proceeding either if and when the Debtors serve process on the defendant or as soon thereafter as practicable.

(iv) Stay Of Adversary Proceedings Until Service Of Process
And Interim Sealing

- Stay of Adversary Proceedings. Each adversary proceeding is stayed until the Debtors have served the summons and complaint.
- Activity During The Stay. During the stay, the Debtors may (i) amend their complaint, and (ii) after notice to the Statutory Committees, dismiss it.
- Expiration Of The Stay. The stay will continue until the earlier of (i) service of process and (ii) further order of the Bankruptcy Court after application therefor.
- Filing Of The Complaints Under Interim Seal. The Debtors filed under seal paper copies of the complaints in the adversary proceedings and the case docket for such adversary proceedings will not disclose the identity of any defendant in the adversary proceedings.

(v) General Motors Corporation

- As described above, Delphi has entered into a comprehensive settlement agreement with GM that is incorporated into the Plan. Nevertheless, because of GM's unique role in these Chapter 11 Cases, in addition to filing a sealed complaint governed by the procedures above, the Debtors and GM have filed, under seal, a stipulation that contains tolling provisions, consistent with the Avoidance Procedures Order, and other agreements of the parties with respect to the sealed complaint involving GM, which stipulation will be deemed "so ordered" and will be sealed in accordance with the terms of the Avoidance Procedures Order.

(vi) Additional Procedures

- The Avoidance Procedures Order is without prejudice to the Debtors' seeking additional procedures to govern the adversary proceedings.

(vii) Reservation Of Rights

- With respect to any avoidance causes of action under section 544, 545, 547, 548, or 553 of the Bankruptcy Code that the Debtors abandon in accordance with the procedures described immediately above, the Debtors reserve all rights, including the right under section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, to use defensively the abandoned avoidance cause of action as a ground to object to all or any part of a claim against any estate asserted by a creditor that remains in possession of, or otherwise obtains the benefit of, the avoidable transfer.

Although hundreds of actions subject to these procedures have been commenced, the Debtors will proceed no further and not use them for any purpose while they focus on confirming the Plan. The procedures are designed to permit the Debtors to preserve these claims while otherwise maintaining the status quo with all parties-in-interest. The actions will remain dormant and become relevant again only in the unlikely event that the Debtors do not timely emerge from chapter 11. If the Plan is confirmed, these actions will be dismissed.

(c) FICA Claimants' Estate Causes of Action

In 1999 and 2003, Delphi, a predecessor of DAS LLC, and Delphi Automotive Systems Services LLC (the "FICA Claimants") agreed to pay "ratification bonuses" shortly after the effective date of duly ratified collective bargaining agreements to certain union members who were classified in a specified status (i.e., active status, protected status, temporary layoff status, or various forms of short-term leave of absence). The FICA Claimants contend that the payments were not "wages" subject to taxation under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act ("FICA") because the payments were not in exchange for any services by the union members, but instead constituted payments in exchange for a promise by the union membership to be bound by the collective bargaining agreements. The FICA Claimants nevertheless withheld and paid FICA taxes to the IRS to avoid the possibility of becoming secondarily liable for the FICA taxes owed to the IRS by those union members. The FICA Claimants subsequently filed claims for refunds with the IRS. The IRS denied the refund claim for 1999 FICA taxes while these Chapter 11 Cases were pending, but the IRS has yet to act on the refund claim for 2003 FICA taxes.
